Greenhill Expands the Restructuring Group as Carlo Bosco Joins the London Office

New York, New York, July 7, 2014---Greenhill & Co., Inc. (NYSE: GHL), a leading independent investment bank, announced today that Carlo Bosco has joined the Firm as a Principal in the Restructuring Group in London.

Mr. Bosco is an experienced investment banker with more than 8 years of restructuring experience, most recently as a Director in Lazard in New York. During his career at Lazard he worked in the U.S. and Europe on more than 20 closed restructuring and distressed M&A transactions across a wide variety of sectors including financial institutions, energy, real estate, retail, technology and media. Mr. Bosco will work closely with Gareth Davies, who is responsible for the European Restructuring Group.

Luca Ferrari and David Wyles, Co-Heads of European Corporate Advisory, commented, "We are pleased to strengthen our team with the experience, the relationships and energy that Carlo brings. Our success in restructuring has been significant in Europe in the last few years, particularly in the UK, with landmark transactions including Hibu (formerly Yell) and the Co-Operative Bank, and we are pleased to be able to expand our team with a key hire that will allow us to grow the practice further in continental Europe."

Greenhill & Co. is a leading independent investment bank focused on providing financial advice on significant mergers, acquisitions, restructurings, financing and capital raising to corporations, partnerships, institutions and governments. It acts for clients located throughout the world from its offices in New York, London, Frankfurt, São Paulo, Stockholm, Sydney, Tokyo, Toronto, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, Melbourne and San Francisco.
