Scott L. Bok, Chairman and CEO of Greenhill, said: "We are excited to welcome Christian to our Firm. He brings significant new relationships and expertise in the DACH region, where we are looking to commit further resources to build on our recent successes. We have had a presence in Frankfurt for 21 years. We remain very excited by the opportunity for our Firm in the DACH region and are convinced Christian is the perfect person to lead the next stage in the development of our business in this important market. Christian will work closely with Philip Meyer-Horn, who has been with the Firm since 2006 and who will become Chairman of the DACH region. In this new role, Philip will continue to help drive the development of our business, focusing his efforts on supporting our key long-term client relationships."

Christian Zorn said: "I am delighted to be joining such a well-established and successful global advisory Firm with its strong reputation for delivering high quality independent advice. I am excited to lead Greenhill's business in the DACH region and, like Scott, I see tremendous opportunity for the Firm to build on its successes and local presence over the last 21 years. I am very much looking forward to working with Philip, who I have known and respected for many years, and the rest of the Greenhill Frankfurt team and to leveraging Greenhill's global and multi-sector network to the benefit of DACH based clients."
