

GREENHILL EXPANDS ADVISORY FOCUS ON THE INFRASTRUCTURE SECTOR

ANAND JAGANNATHAN TO JOIN GREENHILL AS A MANAGING DIRECTOR AND RAHUL MODY TO JOIN AS A PRINCIPAL

London, May 11, 2009 – Greenhill & Co., Inc. (NYSE: GHL), a leading independent investment bank, announced today that Anand Jagannathan will join the firm as a Managing Director based in London and will lead the firm’s advisory team for the Infrastructure sector in Europe. In addition, Rahul Mody will join the firm in London as a Principal, also focused on the Infrastructure sector.

Mr. Jagannathan, 44, has been a Managing Director and Global Head of Infrastructure at Dresdner Kleinwort. Mr. Jagannathan worked at Dresdner Kleinwort for 10 years after working for BZW and latterly Credit Suisse in Bombay and London.

Mr. Mody, 36, a chartered accountant, was also a senior member of the Infrastructure team at Dresdner Kleinwort where he worked for the last 13 years.

Robert F. Greenhill, Chairman of Greenhill, said, “The appointment of Anand and Rahul, in addition to the appointment of Rob Collins in the U.S., gives us a truly international capability in this important sector.”

Simon Borrows, Co-Chief Executive Officer of Greenhill, said, “The current deficit challenges facing many governments and public authorities will lead these bodies to consider the monetization of infrastructure assets. An independent firm like Greenhill is well placed to advise in such situations and Anand and Rahul bring considerable experience and expertise in this sector as well as a track-record of building a highly successful infrastructure group at Dresdner Kleinwort.”
